ADDITIONAL TERMS AND AGREEMENTS AND EXHIBITS FOLLOW THIS PAGE

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND AGREEMENTS:

1. PROPERTY AND OCCUPANTS

The "Property" is defined as including each of the following:

- a. Tenant's use of a Bedroom in a Unit in the Apartment Property
- b. Tenant's shared use of the Common Areas in the Unit and the Apartment Property (for purposes of this Lease, "Common Areas" are those areas within the Unit to which Tenant has access without going into another Bedroom and, within the Apartment Property, those areas to which all Tenants have general access)
- c. Tenant's use of all appliances and furniture within the Common Areas of the Unit
- d. If Bedroom or Unit is furnished: Tenant's sole (if Bedroom is Private) or shared (if Bedroom is Shared) use of Tenant's furniture within Tenant's Bedroom
- e. Tenant's shared use of the mailbox assigned to Tenant by the Landlord

Landlord has the right to relocate Tenant to another bedroom and/or Unit of comparable floor plan style, bedroom type and level, if available, within the Apartment Property. In the event that Landlord must relocate Tenant, Landlord agrees to exercise best commercial efforts to relocate Tenant to a comparable Bedroom and/or Unit. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord cannot guarantee that Landlord will relocate Tenant to a comparable Bedroom or Unit type. In the event Tenant is relocated to a different Unit type with lower market rent, the Rent will be modified to the market rent for such Unit type at the Building.

Tenant hereby acknowledges that roommate compatibility is the sole and exclusive responsibility of Tenant. In the event Tenant requests a room reassignment, Landlord will use reasonable efforts, but is under no obligation, to accommodate the request. All requests for room reassignment must be provided to Landlord in writing on the forms provided by Landlord. In the event that Tenant's request for a room reassignment is accommodated, Tenant will be responsible for a reassignment charge as set forth on the attached Terms and Conditions page (the "Terms"), which is hereby incorporated into and made a part of this Lease.

2. UP-FRONT FEES

Unless otherwise indicated on the Terms page, no "Fee" described on the first page of this Lease is a "security deposit" or any other type of deposit, no such fee is refundable for any reason, and no interest will be payable thereon. There is no security deposit required in connection with this Lease, unless indicated on the Terms page. Any major damage to the Unit beyond ordinary wear and tear (including, without limitation, large holes in walls, broken or damaged fixtures or appliances, or tears/cracks or other significant damage to flooring) may subject Tenant to additional financial obligations to Landlord that survive the Term of this Lease, such obligations being understood and accepted by Tenant. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Tenant expressly and unequivocally acknowledges that Tenant is bound by all the conditions and obligations of use of the Unit that are imposed by this Lease, including its Addendums and the applicable Rules and Regulations, and that Tenant will not engage in (or permit any invitees or guests of Tenant to engage in) conduct that might reasonably be expected to cause damage to the Unit.

3. RENT

Tenant must pay Tenant's Rent on or before the 1st day of each month ("Due Date").

- a. If Tenant fails to pay all Rent before the end of the day (11:59 p.m.) on the 3rd day of each month, Tenant will be obligated to pay a late charge as set forth in the Terms. If Tenant does not pay Rent on or before the Due Date, Tenant will be in Default, and all remedies under state law and this Lease will be available to Landlord.
- b. Tenant must pay full Rent when due and may not deduct funds from rental payments for any reason, unless otherwise allowed by law. Landlord may first apply payment(s) towards any outstanding balances due, such as, but not limited to delinquencies, prior balances, maintenance and/or damage charges, additional Rent and lockout fees before the current Rent is credited.
- c. Tenant may not pay Rent in cash or by personal check. Tenant must pay Rent by money order, certified funds, online payment, electronic payment, or as otherwise agreed by Landlord in writing. Landlord does not have to give Tenant a receipt for rental payments made by money order. Landlord may, at Landlord's option, require at any time that Tenant pay all Rent and other sums in certified or cashier's check or money order.
- d. Any accord, satisfaction, conditions or limitations noted by Tenant on or in any rental payment shall be null and void.
- e. Tenant is liable for all costs or charges associated with Landlord having to provide special services (unless required by law) to Tenant or at Tenant's request and for all fees or fines as described in Rules and Regulations.

Rent payments are to be made payable to Landlord at the address listed in the Terms.

4. RETURNED PAYMENTS

If Tenant's payment is returned for any reason, including denial of payment, Tenant:

- a. must pay a returned payment charge as set forth in the Terms as Additional Rent for each and every payment that is returned or denied
- b. will be responsible for any late Rent charges retroactive to the due date listed in Paragraph 3 and Basic Terms

- c. will be in violation of the Lease for failing to pay the Rent on time, unless the fee and any late Rent charges are paid within the notice requirements of local law

If during the Term of this Lease two (2) of Tenant's payments are returned or denied to Landlord, Landlord will require that all Rent and other sums due and owing from Tenant be made payable to Landlord in either certified or cashier's check or money order.

5. DEFAULT CONDITIONS OF LEASE ("DEFAULT") BY TENANT

Tenant is found in Default of this Lease if Tenant does any one or more of the following:

- a. fails to pay Rent or Additional Rent when it is due
- b. does anything which is not permitted by this Lease
- c. fails to do anything which is required by this Lease
- d. gives Landlord false information, including information or signatures on Tenant's or the Guarantor's/Co-signers rental application, on the Lease or on the Guarantor Agreement
- e. fails to pay in timely manner, disconnects or shuts-off any of the utilities which are payable by Tenant or the other Tenants of the Unit
- f. Tenant fails to pay any fine within 3 days after it is levied in accordance with this Lease or the Rules and Regulations
- g. Tenant "Abandons" the Unit
- h. Tenant "Terminates" (as defined below) the Lease prior to the end of its Term
- i. fails to provide a Guarantor or other form of security as Landlord may require in its sole and exclusive determination

Tenant will be deemed to have Abandoned the Unit when all of the following have occurred: (1) everybody appears to have moved out in Landlord's reasonable judgment; (2) clothes, furniture, and personal belongings have been substantially removed in Landlord's reasonable judgment; (3) Tenant has been in Default for non-payment of Rent for 5 consecutive days, or water, gas, or electric service for the Unit not connected in Landlord's name have been Terminated or transferred; and (4) Tenant has not responded for 2 days to Landlord's notice left on the outside of the main entry door stating that Landlord considers the Unit Abandoned. A Unit is also deemed to be "Abandoned" 10 days after the death of a sole Tenant.

If Tenant Abandons the Unit, Landlord may take possession of the Unit and its contents without further notice. Except as otherwise provided by state or local law, Landlord may dispose of the contents and re-rent the Unit without obligation to Tenant. Tenant must pay the cost for removal and other associated costs.

Tenant shall be deemed to have "Terminated" this Lease if Tenant:

- a. fails to move in or to give written move-out notice.
- b. moves out without paying Rent in full for the entire Lease Term.
- c. moves out at Landlord's demand because of Tenant's Default.
- d. is judicially evicted.

6. ACCELERATION.

All monthly Rent for the rest of the Lease contract will be accelerated automatically without notice or demand (before or after acceleration) and will be immediately due and delinquent if Tenant is evicted from the Unit, Abandons the Unit, or Terminates the Lease as provided in Section 5.

7. OTHER REMEDIES

In addition to all of Landlord's other rights and remedies under state and local law and this Lease, Landlord may report unpaid amounts to credit agencies. If Tenant Defaults and moves out early, Tenant will pay Landlord any amounts stated to be rental amounts in Basic Terms and Paragraph 3, in addition to other sums due. Upon Tenant's Default, Landlord reserves all other available legal remedies, including, but not limited to, Lease termination. Late charges are liquidated damages for Landlord's time, inconvenience, and overhead in collecting late Rent (but are not for attorney's fees and litigation costs). Tenant must pay all collection-agency fees if Tenant fails to pay all sums due within 10 days after the Landlord mails the Tenant a letter demanding payment and stating that collection agency fees will be added if Tenant fails to pay all sums by that deadline. Landlord may accelerate Rent – see Paragraph 6.

8. LEASE GUARANTEE

Landlord reserves the right to require Tenant to provide Landlord a Guarantee executed by a qualified Guarantor acceptable to Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion. The Guarantee for each Tenant, if requested by Landlord, should be delivered to Landlord promptly after Landlord's request, and Landlord reserves the right to Terminate this Lease at any time, in its sole discretion, if Tenant does not provide the Guarantee to Landlord within seven (7) days of Landlord's request. If Tenant does not meet residential rental criteria and is unable to provide an executed Guarantee acceptable to Landlord within the seven-day period, Landlord reserves the right to request (at Landlord's sole discretion) other financial assurance, which may include an accelerated Rent prepayment agreement.

Tenant will not be allowed to move-in without a complete Lease file including the Guarantee or other financial assurance (if requested), unless Landlord agrees otherwise in advance in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, any failure by Tenant to provide a signed Guarantee form or other financial assurance (if requested) shall not relieve Tenant of the obligation to make all Rent and other payments due under the Lease for the entire Term.

9. INSURANCE REQUIREMENT

Tenant agrees to obtain and maintain, at your sole expense, during the Term of the Lease and any subsequent renewal periods, a policy of personal liability insurance, which provides limits of liability to parties who may make claims against you (including Owner) in the amount not less than $100,000 per occurrence ("Insurance Requirement").

Tenant acknowledges that failure to supply proof of and maintain the Insurance Requirement hereunder shall be deemed a Default under the Lease, in accordance with Section 5 of the Lease. In such event, the Landlord will send a written notice demanding that Tenant cure the Default by procuring the required insurance coverage and supplying evidence of coverage to Landlord. Landlord shall have available to it all Remedies described in Section 7 of the Lease in the event of any such Default concerning Tenant's failure to comply with the Insurance Requirement. Without in any way limiting the foregoing, if Tenant fails to supply evidence of compliance with the Insurance Requirement to Landlord by the date set forth in Landlord's notice, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to procure liability only insurance coverage on Tenant's behalf on a monthly basis, and to charge Tenant for the amount of the premium paid to the insurance company plus an additional administrative fee as set forth in the Terms. The monthly premium and additional administrative fee will be considered additional rent under the Lease and will be charged to Tenant on a monthly basis for as long as Tenant is a Lessee and for as long as Tenant fails to provide Landlord with evidence of compliance with the Insurance Requirement. Tenant acknowledges that the coverage that the Landlord obtains because of the Tenant's failure to provide evidence of compliance with the Insurance Requirement may cost more than other insurance coverage the Tenant can purchase elsewhere and may not provide as much coverage as Tenant may choose to purchase for his/herself. Tenant acknowledges that the insurance purchased by Landlord will NOT cover Tenant's personal contents. If Tenant provides evidence of compliance with the Insurance Requirement, the charge for the insurance obtained by Landlord and the additional monthly administrative fee will cease based on Landlord's insurance enrollment schedule, but in no event, more than 30 days after Tenant provides evidence of compliance with the Insurance Requirement. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the administrative fee for purchasing such insurance is a fair and reasonable estimate of the administrative costs Landlord will incur as a result of procuring the liability only insurance coverage for Tenant. Tenant acknowledges that the following circumstances shall also be considered events of Default under the Lease: Tenant's failure to pay for the insurance coverage procured by Landlord and/or the additional administrative charge; or Tenant permitting any independently procured insurance coverage to lapse during the term of the Lease, if Tenant fails to obtain substitute insurance coverage that complies with the Insurance Requirement and/or provide Landlord with evidence of the replacement coverage.

10. TENANT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR INJURY OR DAMAGE

Tenant expressly and unequivocally agrees to be liable to the Landlord and/or the Landlord's insurer in tort for damage to the Unit and the Property, including, but not limited to, fire and water damage caused by Tenant's conduct, or the conduct of Tenant's occupants, guest, licensees, invitees or agents. Tenant agrees to comply in all respects with any policy of insurance covering said Unit and the Property or contents so as not to cause an increase in premium or void any insurance policy.

Tenant agrees that Tenant is responsible for all of the following:

- a. All personal property of Tenant and Tenant's family, guests or persons invited by Tenant in or on the Property, including automobiles.
- b. Loss, damage, costs, injury or death caused by Tenant or Tenant's family, guests or persons invited by Tenant for the use of Tenant's property.
- c. Any claim due to acts or from any failure to act by Tenant or Tenant's family, guests or persons invited by Tenant.
- d. Payment for damages or costs to Landlord from any claim based upon the acts of Tenant or Tenant's family, guests or persons invited by Tenant.

11. LANDLORD UNABLE TO GIVE POSSESSION

- a. If Landlord is unable to give possession of the Unit to Tenant on the date when the Lease is to start, Rent will be abated on a daily basis during the delay. Tenant must pay Rent or Additional Rent for all days during an installment period on which Tenant has possession.
- b. Tenant may end the Lease if possession of the Unit is not given to Tenant within the later of (i) 90 days after the date the Lease begins and (ii) the maximum time period allowed by law (the "Non-Delivery Cancellation Date"). Tenant must give notice to Landlord in writing before the 6th day after the Non-Delivery Cancellation Date to end the Lease. The Lease will continue if Tenant does not timely give Landlord written notice that Tenant is ending Lease. All duties and obligations of Tenant under the Lease will remain in effect.

If Tenant believes that Landlord has violated this Lease, then prior to Tenant bringing any action against Landlord for such violation, Tenant must first give Landlord written notice of the nature of Landlord's claimed violation and allow Landlord 30 days to remedy it such claimed violation.

12. ACCEPT CONDITION OF UNIT

- a. Roommate compatibility is not guaranteed.
- b. Tenant accepts the Unit and Property in its present condition and designates it fit and habitable.
- c. Tenant shall complete a Move-in Condition Form and return it to Landlord management's office within 48 hours of taking possession of the Unit. As part of completing the Move-In Condition Form, Tenant must test all smoke detectors. Tenant hereby acknowledges that the purpose of the Move-In Condition Form is to document the condition of the Unit at the time the Term of the Lease commences.
- d. Tenant is responsible for keeping a copy of the Move-in Condition form signed by Landlord or Landlord's representative. If Landlord does not receive a Move-In Condition Form within the time given, Tenant shall be deemed to have acknowledged that there are no defects or damages. The Unit must be returned to Landlord in the same condition as it was provided, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Tenant is responsible for all damage to the Unit that occurs after acceptance, reasonable wear and tear excluded. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that having to paint a Unit one (1) year after it was painted is not considered reasonable wear and tear.

13. USE

- a. Only the Tenant listed on this Lease may live in the bedroom; however, Tenant acknowledges that the Unit may be occupied by another Tenant; provided the additional Tenant has an executed Lease or is listed in the Basic Terms of this Lease.
- b. No one other than Tenant may occupy the bedroom. Persons not listed above must not stay in the bedroom for more than 2 consecutive days without Landlord's prior written consent, and no more than twice that many days in any one month. Tenant hereby agrees that Landlord may share Tenant's name and contact information with Roommates prior to commencement of the lease term.
- c. If Tenant allows another person to occupy any unrented/vacant bed space in the Unit, Tenant will be responsible for the Rent for that bed space. Tenant will be responsible for all costs associated with returning the unrented/vacant bedroom to its original condition. If the Unit consists of more than one bedroom, Landlord has the right, when any bedroom within the Unit is unoccupied, to place a new Tenant in the unoccupied bedroom unless Tenant and all other Tenants in the Unit agree to pay Landlord, as part of Tenant's reserve Rent, the Rent due and other charges due for such unoccupied bedroom. The fact that Tenant and Tenant's roommates may be in conflict with each other will not result in any termination of this Lease.
- d. Tenant may not commit any act or allow any activity to occur on the Property, which violates or breaks any Federal, State or local laws or ordinances, rules or regulations including, but not limited to, disabling smoke detectors or carbon monoxide detectors. Tenant may not use or allow the Property to be used for any disorderly or illegal purpose. The Unit may only be used as a private residence.
- e. Tenant may not store or allow any hazardous, flammable or toxic substances in or on the Property. Tenant may not do or allow any behavior in the Property which is a nuisance or which creates a risk of injury, loss or damage. Tenant may not engage in or allow any activity, which increases the costs of insurance or the Landlord's ability to either acquire or keep insurance coverage on the Property.
- f. If Tenant permits another person to live in the Unit or provides access or a key to a person not named on this Lease, it shall be a Default under the Lease and Landlord may exercise any of its remedies hereunder.

14. APPLIANCES AND FURNITURE.

- a. If the property is furnished, as shown on the Terms page, then Landlord will provide (in its discretion) some or all of the following furniture and appliances in the Units: Refrigerator/Freezer, Dishwasher, Range/Oven, Garbage Disposal, Microwave, Flat Panel Television(s), Coffee Table, Bar Stools, Mattress and Bed frame, Desk, Desk Chair, and Couch. The actual furniture and appliances provided may vary based on unit and floor plan type.
- b. Landlord will repair or replace non-working appliances.
- c. Tenant assumes full responsibility for items furnished by Landlord and agrees to return them to Landlord at the expiration of the Lease Term in as good condition as when Tenant received them, reasonable wear and tear excepted. Tenant shall not remove any of Landlord's furniture, fixtures or appliances from the room they were in on the Start Date of this Lease without Landlord's prior written consent, which may be withheld at Landlord's sole discretion. Tenant shall return all furniture, fixtures and appliances to their original positions prior to vacating the Bedroom or Unit. Tenant shall not remove Landlord's furniture, fixtures, and/or appliances from the Unit for any reason. Tenant shall be responsible for all loss, breakage, or other damage to furnishings and appliances.

15. LAUNDRY FACILITIES.

Individual Washers and Dryers may be included in each Unit; See Terms. If provided, Tenant is required to clean lint trap after each dryer use to prevent fire.

16. UTILITIES.

- a. Landlord shall supply and pay for certain utilities. The utilities provided by the Landlord are shown in the Terms. If trash removal is provided by Landlord, it is provided only at specific locations throughout the Property (this does NOT constitute door-to-door trash pickup). If cable and internet service is provided for the Unit, service will be provided by the Landlord through an arrangement with an outsourced service provider.
- b. Tenant agrees to use utilities in a careful and conservative manner.
- c. In addition to the obligation to pay Rent, Tenant is responsible for certain monthly utility charges as outlined in the Terms.
- d. Certain utilities provided by Landlord may have a monthly conservation cap in dollars per Tenant. Caps, if applicable, are outlined in the Terms.
- e. If electricity is provided by the Landlord but paid by the Tenant, the billed cost is determined as outlined in the Terms.
- f. If water or sewer is provided by the Landlord but paid by the Tenant, the billed cost is determined as outlined in the Terms.
- g. If gas is provided by the Landlord but paid by the Tenant, the billed cost is determined as outlined in the Terms.

Landlord reserves the right to estimate any and all utility charges upon Tenant's move-out (or at any other time) and such amounts shall be deemed final. Landlord also reserves the right to contract with a third-party billing service to calculate or bill Tenant for any utilities that are Tenant's obligation to pay hereunder, and in the event Landlord does so, Tenant agrees to pay a reasonable fee for such services, as such fee may be determined from time to time. Without limitation upon the foregoing, Landlord has engaged Conservice Utility Management and Billing, a third-party billing provider, to bill Tenant for utilities and related taxes and fees. Tenant acknowledges that the billing provider is not a public utility. Landlord reserves the right to bill Tenant a fee which represents the costs of administration, billing, bill auditing, overhead and similar expenses and charges to be incurred by Landlord and Conservice during the Term of this Lease, and Tenant agrees to pay such fee as it may be charged by Landlord from time to time, see Terms page.

If Landlord does not provide electricity and Tenant is required to establish an account with the local utility provider, Tenant shall do so promptly in the Tenant's name. Tenant shall ensure that the start date for each such account is the Tenant's move-in date. If Tenant fails to comply with the conditions of this paragraph and Landlord is subsequently charged with utility charges attributable to Tenant's occupancy of the unit, then Tenant shall be issued (and shall pay) a bill for such services by Landlord or the billing provider, which shall include a service charge in the amount of $50. Such service charge is used to compensate Landlord for Tenant's failure to become the customer of record for such accounts, including, but not limited to charges assessed by the third-party billing provider to Landlord for processing of the bill for the delinquent time period, opportunity cost of the money not paid, and other administrative costs. Tenant and Landlord agree that the charge described above is a reasonable estimate of the costs incurred.

17. INTERNET & TELEVISION SERVICE

If Landlord is providing internet and/or cable service to Tenants, service is subject to Network Access, Acceptable Use and performance level terms (see below). If Tenants want additional television channels, voice service or additional internet capacity, they will be at Tenants' expense and Tenants must make arrangements through the Landlord-approved provider. These additional services not paid by Landlord must remain on and paid for by Tenants, in Tenants' names, through their contracted ending date regardless of whether Tenants have moved out.

Landlord shall not be liable for any interruption, surge, or failure of telecommunications services (including internet access, television service) to the Apartment or any damage directly or indirectly caused by the interruption, surge or failure. Tenants hereby release Landlord from any and all such claims and waive any claims due to such outages, interruptions, or fluctuations.

Network Access

Tenant may find it necessary to purchase a network interface card, wireless PC card or other hardware in order to connect to the internet service. Landlord is not responsible for the purchase of these items and Landlord cannot guarantee compatibility with any device Tenants may have. The computer and network card must have software installed that supports the Internet Protocol commonly referred to as TCP/IP. Any conflicts between the software compatibility of the network and the Tenant's computer operating system or any other feature will be the responsibility of the Tenant to resolve. Landlord is not be responsible for software issues related to the user's personal computer.

Acceptable Use

Internet services, equipment, wiring and/or jacks may not be tampered with or modified. Internet users shall not setup, host or maintain "server" type services.

The Internet may be used for only legal purposes and to access only those systems, software and data for which the user is authorized, including, but not limited to, postal and electronic message systems. Sharing access to copyrighted material on the network is prohibited. Be advised that Landlord and Landlord-approved provider will cooperate fully with any law enforcement agency or official in the disclosure of all pertinent information pertaining to any investigation or prosecution of illegal conduct by an individual or suite where access of the Internet services were obtained.

All users of the Internet are advised to consider the open nature of information disseminated electronically, and should not assume any degree of privacy or restricted access to such information. Landlord and Landlord approved-provider strive to provide the highest degree of security for transferring data, but cannot be held responsible if these measures are circumvented and information is intercepted, copied, read, forged, destroyed or misused by others.

Performance Rises

Many factors affect the speed of access to the Internet. Internet users are not guaranteed the maximum service performance (throughput speed) level but commercially reasonable efforts will be made to ensure the highest possible quality of service is delivered. Tenant understands that any content that Tenant may access may be subjected to "caching." Simultaneous use of bandwidth applications (e.g.: streaming media) by multiple users may result in a user experience that is slower when compared to single user. Service outages for maintenance, equipment failures, or emergency servicing will happen over the course of the year.

18. TRASH REMOVAL

Trash must be disposed of in accordance with the directions of the Landlord as relayed from time to time. All trash must be deposited in appropriate receptacles and removed as it accumulates in the Unit, Common Areas, and the Property. Trash may not be kept in closets, hallways, basements, or other portions of the Unit, Common Areas, or the Property. Tenant must exercise reasonable consideration and care so that Tenant promptly and neatly dispose of all trash in a way that minimizes disruption, nuisance, noxious odors, and disturbances to other residents in the Property.

Additionally, Tenant may never place trash or debris outside of the front door to the unit, outside trash chutes, in any common area of the building, or on the patio or balcony. If Tenant violates local ordinances for removal of trash/recycling and Landlord is fined, Tenant must pay the fine and any costs incurred by Landlord as a result of the Tenant's actions.

Violation of this Paragraph shall subject Tenant to a reasonable fine levied by Landlord in its sole discretion as set forth in the Terms.

19. ANIMALS

No animals (including mammals, reptiles, birds, fish, amphibians, arachnids, and insects) are allowed, even temporarily, anywhere in the Property unless authorized by Landlord in advance in writing. Except as expressly provided below, if Landlord allows an animal, Tenant must sign a separate Animal Addendum and pay an animal deposit and animal fee. An animal deposit is considered a general Security deposit.

Any animal shall be the full responsibility of Tenant. Tenant must be consistently in control of the animal. If the animal is not under control or poses a risk to the health or safety of others, Tenant may be asked to remove the animal. Failure to do so shall constitute a Default under this Lease.

All animals, including service or therapy animals, must be harnessed, leashed or tethered, unless these devices interfere with the service animal's work or the individual's disability prevents these devices.

Tenant is responsible for removing or arranging the removal of the animal's waste. This will result in placing the waste in a closed container and then removing the container to an outdoor trash bin.

All animals must be licensed and must display a license or its card at all times.

All animals must have an animal clean bill of health (including vaccinations and immunity shots against rabies) administered by a licensed veterinarian.

A request to have a therapy animal is considered a request for an accommodation. All such requests must be made with at least 30 days' written notice and will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis. Individuals making such requests must establish that they experience a documented disability and that the animal is indeed providing essential therapeutic benefit related to the documented disability.

Landlord will authorize a therapy animal or an emotional support animal after first receiving a written affidavit from a qualified health care professional verifying the Tenant's disability under Section 504 of the Fair Housing Act or relevant provisions of the Americans With Disabilities Act and the need for a therapy animal or emotional support animal; provided such animal does not pose a direct threat to the safety of other occupants of the Property. In such situation Landlord will not require an animal deposit and/or fee. If Tenant knows he/she will require a therapy animal or emotional support animal prior to or at the time of Lease signing, he/she must give 30 days prior written notice to Landlord requesting the accommodation. Landlord reserves the right to deny the accommodation or file for eviction of the Tenant.

Tenant must not feed stray or wild animals.

If Landlord consents to Tenant having a non-therapy animal and/or non-emotional support animal, Landlord will require Tenant to pay an animal security deposit as set forth in the Terms and execute an Animal Addendum. The animal security deposit must be paid at the time the Animal Addendum is signed. If Tenant or any guest violates the pet restrictions (with or without Tenant's knowledge), Tenant will be subject to charges, damages, eviction, and other remedies provided in this Lease. If an animal has been in the Unit at any time during the Tenant's term of occupancy (with or without Landlord's consent), Landlord will charge Tenant for de-fleaing, deodorizing, and shampooing the Unit. Initial and daily animal-violation charges and animal-removal charges are damages for Landlord's time and overhead (except for attorney's fees and litigation costs) in enforcing animal restrictions and rules. Landlord may remove an unauthorized animal by leaving, in a conspicuous place in the Unit, a 24-hour written notice of intent to remove the animal. Landlord will turn the animal over to a humane society or local authority. Landlord won't be liable for loss, harm, sickness, or death of the animal. Tenant must pay for the animal's reasonable care and kenneling charges. Landlord has no lien on the animal for any purpose. For Tenants with authorized service animals, Landlord will charge Tenant for de-fleaing, deodorizing, and shampooing the Unit, if Landlord deems necessary, after the Tenant vacates the Unit after tenancy.

20. UNAUTHORIZED VEHICLES

- a. Tenant may not park any vehicle on the Property unless Landlord and Tenant have agreed in writing to allow tenant to park a vehicle on the Property.
- b. No unregistered or disabled automobiles, trailers, campers, boats, etc. are allowed on the Property at any time.
- c. Tenant may not wash or clean automobiles or make repairs to automobiles on the Property.
- d. Landlord may tow, at Tenant's expense, any vehicle determined by Landlord to have been Abandoned or parked in violation of this Lease, the Parking Lease, other property parking regulations or otherwise in violation of law.

21. NOTICES

22. WRITTEN CHANGES TO THE LEASE

All of the promises and understandings between Landlord and Tenant are contained in this Lease. There are no other promises or understandings between the parties. Any changes to this Lease must be in writing signed by both Landlord and Tenant. Neither Landlord nor any of Landlord's representatives have the authority to make any oral promises, representations or agreements. If Landlord believes that fire or catastrophic damage is substantial, or that performance of needed repairs poses a danger to Tenant, Landlord may Terminate this Lease by giving the Tenant at least five (5) days' written notice. Landlord may also remove personal property if it causes a health or safety hazard. If the Lease is so Terminated, Landlord will refund prorated Rent, less lawful deductions.

24. CHANGES TO THE PROPERTY

Tenant must get written permission from Landlord before Tenant makes any changes, improvements or additions to the Unit. Landlord is not responsible for any loss, expense, injury or damage to any person or property caused to items including, but not limited to, theft, fire, ice, snow, rain, water, plumbing or pipe leaks, malfunction of appliances, interruption of any utilities or services of the property, power surges, and sprinkler systems.

Except for Landlord's liability arising under applicable law, Tenant, for Tenant and for Tenant's guests, releases Landlord and Landlord's respective successors, together with each of their officers, directors, shareholders, employees, attorneys, agents and affiliates (collectively, the "released parties") from any and all claims and/or damages (a) for loss or theft of Tenant's or Tenant's guests' personal property and/or (b) which may arise out of any accidents or injuries to Tenant, members of Tenant's family or Tenant's guests, in or about the bedroom, the unit, the building, or the Property, even if such claim or damage was caused in whole or in part by the negligence of the released parties. Tenant assumes for Tenant and all members of Tenant's family and Tenant's guests, any and all risks from any accidents in connection with use of the Unit, the Common Areas, the Property and Property Facilities or other amenities, it being understood that all such facilities and amenities are gratuitously supplied for Tenant's use and at the user's sole risk. Tenant hereby indemnifies Landlord and each of the released parties from and against any and all claims, liabilities, actions, costs and damages which Landlord or any of them may suffer or incur as a result of Tenant's negligence, willful misconduct, and/or violations of this Lease.

27. SECURITY DEVICES

Tenant acknowledges and agrees that Landlord is NOT obligated to furnish security personnel, security lighting, security gates or fences, or other forms of security (collectively, "Security Services"). In the event and to the extent Landlord furnishes any such Security Services, Landlord can, at its sole and absolute discretion, modify or discontinue any of such items provided at any time without notice. Tenant acknowledges and agrees that any and all electronic Security Service equipment and records are the sole and exclusive property of Landlord and shall not be available to Tenant without an order from a court of competent jurisdiction.

 - (i) Rent or Additional Rent, which is due from Tenant
 - (ii) Damages
 - (iii) to the extent allowed by law, reasonable costs and expenses which are spent by Landlord to enforce this Lease, including court costs, collection costs and attorneys' fees
- b. These are not the only rights Landlord has if Tenant breaks this Lease. Besides ending this Lease and getting a court order to evict Tenant, Landlord can sue Tenant for unpaid Rent and other damages, losses or injuries. If Landlord receives a court order for a money judgment against Tenant, Landlord can use the court process to take Tenant's personal goods, motor and other assets.

29. FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

If in Landlord's reasonable judgment, the Unit, the Building or the Property is materially damaged by Fire or other casualty, Landlord may terminate this Lease with written notice within a reasonable time after such determination. If the Landlord does terminate the Lease and Tenant did not cause the loss, Landlord will refund prorated, prepaid Rent, less lawful deductions. If Landlord determines that material damage has not been caused to the Unit, the Building or the Property, or, if Landlord has elected not to Terminate this Lease, Landlord will, within a reasonable time, repair any damages.

30. LOSS OF LANDLORD'S RIGHTS

Landlord does not give up rights by accepting Rent, Additional Rent or by delaying, or not enforcing any condition in this Lease.

31. TAKING OF PRIVATE PROPERTY

- b. Tenant agrees that if the Property, part of the Property, or the land on which the Property is located is taken:
 - 1) Landlord can end this Lease for any part of the Property that is taken
 - 2) Landlord is not responsible for claims of Tenant for inconvenience or loss of use of the Property or any part of the Property
 - 3) Tenant, by signing this Lease, has given to Landlord any rights which Tenant may have to any money paid by the legal authorities for the taking of the Property

32. UNENFORCEABLE LEASE CONDITIONS

If any court determines that any condition or part of this Lease is illegal or unenforceable, the rest of the Lease shall continue in full force and effect.

- a. a sale or transfer of the Property
- b. a sale of the land or buildings in which the Unit is located

35. EARLY TERMINATION OF THE LEASE

This Lease may not be Terminated prior to the end of the Term unless it is agreed to in writing by both Landlord and Tenant and a new Tenant (approved by Landlord) is found to replace the existing Tenant. Landlord has no obligation to end this Lease before the expiration of its Term. If Landlord agrees to end the Lease prior to the expiration of the term, a charge will apply and must be paid before the Lease is officially Terminated. The Application Fees and other Fees are never refundable.

- f. a rekeying fee will be due if rekeying is requested or required
- g. the departing Tenant will no longer remain liable for all Lease Contract obligations for the rest of the original Lease Contract term

NOT A RELEASE. The re-letting fee is not a Lease Contract cancellation fee or buyout fee. It is a liquidated amount covering only part of Landlord's damages; that is, Landlord's time, effort and expense in finding and processing a replacement. Tenant agrees that the re-letting fee is a reasonable estimate of such damages and that the fee is due whether or not Landlord's re-letting attempts succeed. The re-letting fee does not release Tenant from continued liability for future or past-due Rent; charges for cleaning, repairing, repainting, unreturned keys, or other sums due.

- b. If Landlord fails to repair or remedy a condition for which it is obligated, by law, to repair or remedy, Tenant may pursue remedies under state and local law, including the possibility of terminating this Lease, by completing the following:
 1. Tenant must make a request through Landlord's EMS for repair or remedy of the condition – after which Landlord shall have a reasonable time consistent with state and local law for repair or remedy
 2. If the repair or remedy still has not been accomplished within that reasonable time period, Tenant may ultimately Terminate this Lease by giving Landlord a final notice through Landlord's EMS
- c. If this Lease has ended and tenant does not leave on the Lease ending date, Tenant must pay in addition to the normal Rent, a per day charge as Holdover Rent calculated at rent plus twenty-five percent (25%) for the additional time in the unit for the extra time spent in the premises (payable daily in advance without notice or demand) plus, all of our damages and damages of the person who could not move in because of your Holdover.

Special Notification of Contractual Obligation & No-Show Policy Latitude at River Landing

Dear Courtney J Anderson:

We want to thank you for choosing Latitude at River Landing as your home for the upcoming academic year. We are committed to ensuring your home is an incredible place to live, study, and enjoy your academic and collegiate experience.

You are currently signing a legally binding contract. This is an enforceable lease agreement that you are responsible for upon completing this lease signing process. However, we know that sometimes things change in your life and want to ensure you know your options in the event that you do not intend to move in.

- If your plans change, you should always communicate with us to ensure we know. Please do not think that avoiding our calls, texts, or emails is the best method. Being honest and direct is the best way. We want to help if we can. We certainly cannot if we do not know you don't plan to move in.
- Re-letting: You can attempt to re-let your lease to someone else. You are responsible for finding someone to take over your lease, and the new person must sign a lease with us before you will be let out of your lease. We may have the right to charge you a re-let charge according to the terms of your lease.

No-Show Policy:

- If you do not move in at the start of your lease, you will be responsible for the full amount for the entire term. Notifying us of your intentions not to move in does not remove your obligation. You must find a re-let (and, if applicable, pay the re-let charge) to be let out of your lease.
- If you do not re-let your lease and do not move in: Your account, along with any/all guarantors, may be sent to collections. The collections agency will attempt to collect the debt owed. This may cause a long-lasting negative impact on your credit report and credit history.

Thank you again for choosing Latitude at River Landing. Please let us know at 319-214-7820 or info@latitudeatriverlanding.com if you have any questions or your plans change at any time. Please note that this notification is merely a summary of certain terms of your lease, and this notification is in all ways subject to the terms of your lease.

Sincerely,

The Latitude at River Landing Management Team
